GREAT CADET ARMY NOW AT COLLEGE

Authorities Think Capacity of School Will Be Reached By Oct. 10.

At noon today 825 students had matriculated at the A. and M. College, were assigned to rooms and are now ready to take up the year's work. The number of boys in attendance is as large as was expected at this time, and with the usual increase it is expected there will be 900 on the campus by October 10, which will probably be as many as the College is able to care for under the present conditions. Tomorrow opening services will be held in the chapel and the following week will witness regular work for the boys.

PLATT SUBPOENAED IN SULZER TRIAL

Impeached Governor's Alleged "Dummy" in Wall Street Probably Testify Next Week.

[By Associated Press.]
Albany, Sept. 27.—Chester C. Platt, Governor Sulzer's secretary, was subpoenaed as a witness for the Board of Managers in the impeachment trial today. An unanswerable question was as to whether Frederick Colwell, Sulzer's alleged "dummy" in Wall street, would testify today. Sulzer's attorneys said they did not know where Colwell is. They said, however, they had no desire to conceal him and he will probably testify next week. There was no session of court today.
